

Dr. Jacob Kashiwagi

Dr. Jacob uses No-Influence Leadership in all his consulting and education of professionals, parents and students. He developed No-Influence Leadership alongside his father, Dr. Dean Kashiwagi, in their global research group. No-Influence Leadership is a groundbreaking approach to understanding and mentoring others to understand who they are and learn to live a happy and successful life. It has been tested on thousands of professionals, parents, and students showing a reduction in stress and an increase in happiness and success.

A New Approach to Education

Traditional Education Approach

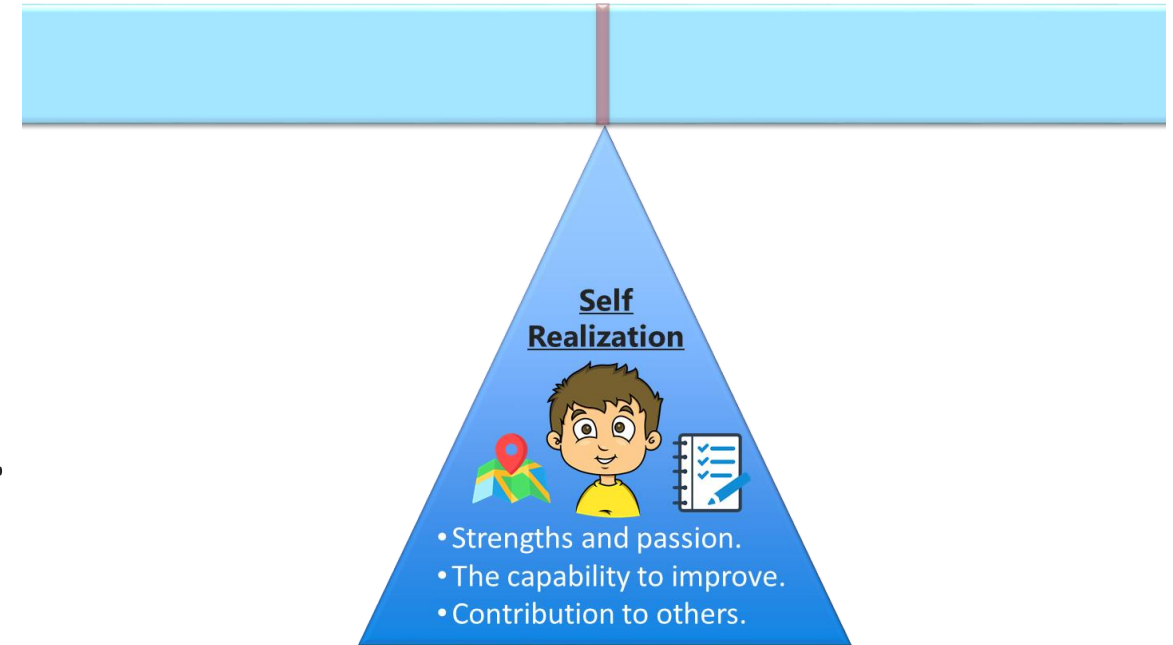

Top Down Approach

- Focus is on learning as much information as possible
- Same technical info packaged in different ways

V.S.

Non-Traditional Education Approach

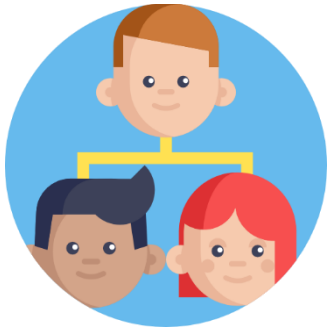

Bottom Up Approach

- Focus is on child figuring out who they are
- Child only focuses on learning info that helps them be successful

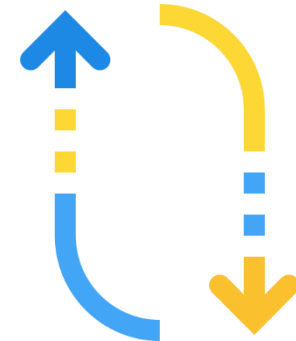

Key Principles of No-Influence Leadership

Individual
Centered

Simplicity
Structured

Action
Focused

Logic of No-Influence Leadership

- You are okay being you / You can't make a mistake.
- You are unique and have special talents and abilities.
- Service others to better understand you.
- Life is cause and effect. The more you understand the laws the less you will worry and stress.
- You are in control. You determine what happens.
- Think less and do more.
- Utilize the expertise of others.

Business Description

The LSA is a non-profit organization that was established in 2013. It has already seen tremendous impact in K-12 education. The organization was awarded the Arizona State University Change Maker Education Award in 2016. The program is currently partnered with several schools from Mesa to West Phoenix to Coolidge Arizona with educational programs. Our purpose is to make learning quicker, easier, and less stressful, by teaching people how to simplify their lives using logic and common sense.

Leadership Society of Arizona's Summer Camp was one of the best summer experiences I've ever had. The coaches were very friendly and made sure that every student got a unique experience that was individual to them. The lessons covered areas that are extremely important in life, like building rel... See More

I loved Leadership Society of Arizona because every coach was so kind and the activities were very fun. The presentations were helpful because the coaches already had an experience to share and the activities were related to the presentations, and we would practice the skill of the presentations.
